Carmie Conroy Shield (Pennant)

North vs. North West Division 3 Pennant Challenge

The Carmie Plate (shield as it has come to be known) was donated by one of the North West most prolific winner of championships, Mrs Carmie Conroy, Carmi began, golf as a junior (Carmie Matthews) at Wynyard and began winning championships at club level in her early teens. After marrying Ken (a bank manager) she found herself in other parts of Tasmania where you will see her name on the championships boards. Carmie represented Tasmania as a team member and for many years was a stalwart member of the Northern Team. Her name is recorded for winning a host of Northern and North Western Championships titles, Women foursome and Mixed Foursome Championships. A life member of her clubs Seabrook and Wynyard, Carmie still attends most of the golfing events held in the State and on the mainland. She is one of the best known golfers in Tasmania. ## Cons Pearce Handicap Pennant Trophy (Pennant)

Northern Regional Handicap Final - North vs. East Coast

(The Cons Pearce Shield was donated by the Longford Golf Club and named with the approval of Mrs Constance Pearce. The shield is for a playoff between the winners on the East Coast and Northern District handicap pennant teams, with the winner going on to the Women's State Finals.

Cons Pearce began playing golf as a junior (Constance Allwright) in the south of the state. Cons and her husband Bryan lived many years at Parkham near Deloraine where for many years she was a member of the Deloraine Golf Club before moving to Hadspen she joined the Riverside Golf Club where she was a formidable match player, played A Grade for Riverside; Cons was a member of the Women's Northern Team on many occasions; Early in the 1960's Cons was elected to the NTLGD, in 1972 she became a member of the State Women's Council, served a term as Secretary 1977 – 1980, Cons was President on the NTLGD and Vice President of the TLGU, a State selector 1978 – 1985, President TLGU 1982 – 1986, she was elected Vice President to the ALGU . Committee and Life member of the NTLGD and TLGU)
